[XXIII^d. YEAR.] THE [N^o. 1149.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1767.

CORTE, (in CORSICA) June 1.

AN Expreſs and ſeveral Officers are arrived here from Capraia, with Advice, that the Fortreſs capitulated on the 29th paſt, at Evening, and next Morning was put into the Hands of the Beſiegers. Leave was given to Commiſſary Bernard Ottone, who commanded therein in chief, to embark with the Garriſon to Genoa, or any other Part of the Genoeſe Territories. The Enemy's Officers have been treated with Politeneſs, and dined at Table with thoſe of Corſica. M. Ottone immediately wrote a Letter to the Senator Pinelli, acquainting him with the Capitulation, and deſiring him to ſend a Veſſel to take the Garriſon on board. In conſequence of this, a Pink arrived on the 31ſt, and M. Ottone, with ſome Attendants, embarked. As ſoon as they were on board, a Gale of Wind aroſe, and the Ship was obliged to put to Sea: The reſt of the Garriſon are ſtill on Shore, waiting for another Veſſel.

The Fortreſs has been defended for 102 Days, with no other Suſtenance for 80 People than Bread and Water. There were found in it Eleven Pieces of Braſs, beſides other Ordnance, Two Barrels of Cartouches for the Muſketry, Two Barrels of Powder, ſeveral Small Arms, and a great Number of Bullets.

Two Hundred of the Corſican Troops are coming home, 300 being left to keep the Garriſon.

BRUSSELS, June 27. An Edict of the Empreſs Queen has juſt made its Appearance here, prohibiting the Admiſſion into this Country of any of the Jeſuits expelled from Spain, or exiled from France; it matters not whether they are Subjects, by Birth, of her Imperial Majeſty, or whether or not they wear the Habit of their Order.

We have received Advice, that a Ship belonging to the Religion of Malta lately attacked a Turkiſh Veſſel off the Iſland of Rhodes, the Commander of which, after an obſtinate Engagement, which laſted Nine Hours, finding it was not in his Power to hold out any longer, blew up his Ship with his own Hand.

MADRID, June 12. Orders having been given to expel all the Jeſuits in his Majeſty's Dominions, both in America and Aſia, it is reported, that his Majeſty propoſes to ſend thither 3000 other Monks, from the different Orders eſtabliſhed in this Kingdom.

LONDON, June 26.

We are credibly informed, that his Excellency the Earl of Rochfort, his Majeſty's Ambaſſador Extraordinary to the Court of France, is daily expected in Town from Paris. Some ſay he comes to tranſact private Buſineſs of his own; others ſay his Lordſhip was ſent for, in order to be appointed one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State.

They write from Barbados, that the Prince de Rohan, Commander in chief of the French Iſlands, had fitted out ſeveral Frigates of War to cruize againſt all Merchant Ships of his own Nation, who ſhall attempt to trade to any of the adjacent Engliſh Settlements.

We hear that Meir Jaffier, who lately died in the Eaſt-Indies, has left to Lord Clive, Rupees to the Value of 120,000 l. Sterling; on which his Lordſhip ſummoned a Council for their Opinion, whether that Money properly belonged to the Company or himſelf; when they determined, that it was his Lordſhip's ſole Right; whereupon his Lordſhip took Poſſeſſion of it, but immediately after generouſly ſettled the whole of it on the Widows and Orphans of thoſe Officers and Soldiers who loſt their Lives in the Service.

By Accounts lately arrived in the Prince Frederick Store-Ship, we are credibly informed, that the new Iſlands near the Streights of Magellan, were, laſt Summer, very fruitful in Peaſe, Beans, Turnips, Potatoes, &c. &c. the Seed of which had been ſown by the Gentlemen of the Men of War ſtationed at Port Egmont, which was diſcerned by the Dolphin in her laſt Voyage, and ſaid to be as commodious and ſafe a Harbour as any in the World. That the Corn was in the Ear when they left that Place, which was in January laſt, anſwering to our July, the Iſland lying in nearly the ſame Parrallel with London, in the ſouthern Hemiſphere. The Land being without Trees, Care had been taken to get a large Quantity tranſported from the Streights, ſo that with proper Management and Induſtry, it is hoped they will one Day turn out of the utmoſt Uſe. Thoſe are the Iſlands which ſome have repreſented to be ſo ſteril, as not to produce any Kind of Vegetables!—Had Commodore Anſon, in his Voyage round Cape Horn, known of this Port, there is not the leaſt Doubt but his whole Fleet might have gone into the South-Seas in good Condition.

It is ſaid that all Teas, ſeized and condemned for being illegally imported, will not be ſold for home Conſumption as uſual, but exported to Ireland and the Colonies; and 'tis further ſaid, ſuch Exports will be allowed in ſmaller Quantities than heretofore.

June 24. Some Politicians begin to think, that in caſe the Courts of Vienna, Paris, and Madrid, ſhould pay any Regard to the Application of the See of Rome againſt the Diſſidents in Poland, a general War in Poland will probably take Place, as the Five great Powers who have already declared in their Favour, as Guarantees of the Treaty of Oliva, would exert their Force in Favour of ſuch Declarations.

June 25. The Reports of a Change in the Miniſtry continue, and the laſt were,

That Mr. Conway was to return to the Army;
Lord Briſtol to be Secretary of State;
The Duke of Grafton to go to Ireland; and
Mr. Charles Townſend, to be both firſt Lord of the Treaſury, and Chancellor of the Exchequer.

They write from Rochfort, that the Dauphin, a ſecond Rate Ship of War, pierced to mount 90 Guns, would be ready to launch there by the Middle of September next.

July 2. His Majeſty went this Day to the Houſe of Peers, and gave the Royal Aſſent to the following Bills, viz.

The Bill granting to his Majeſty a certain Sum out of the Sinking Fund, and for applying certain Sums therein mentioned for the Service of 1767; and for impowering his Majeſty to permit the Importation of Corn or Grain, Duty free, for a longer Time than is permitted by any Act of this Seſſion of Parliament.

The Bill for taking off the inland Duty of One Shilling per Pound on all black and Singlo Tea; and for granting a Drawback on the Exportation of Teas to Ireland and America.

The Bill for granting certain Duties on foreign Linens imported, and for eſtabliſhing a Fund to encourage the raiſing Hemp and Flax.

The Bill for eſtabliſhing an Agreement for a limited Time for the Payment of an annual Sum by the Eaſt-India Company.

The Bill to reſtrain the Governor, Council, and Aſſembly, of NEW-YORK, from paſſing any Act of Aſſembly 'til Proviſion is made for furniſhing his Majeſty's Troops with the Neceſſaries required by Law.

And to ſome other Public and Private Bills.

The following is his MAJESTY'S Moſt Gracious SPEECH, made on Friday, the 4th of July, to both Houſes of PARLIAMENT.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

"THE advanced Seaſon of the Year, joined to the Conſideration of the Inconvenience you muſt all have felt from ſo long an Abſence from your ſeveral Countries, calls upon me to put an End to the preſent Seſſion of Parliament; which I cannot do, without returning you my Thanks for your diligent Application to the Public Buſineſs, and the Proofs you have given of your Affection for me, for my Family, and for my Government: And tho', from the Nature and Extenſiveneſs of the ſeveral Objects under your Conſideration, it could not be expected that all the great Commercial Intereſts ſhould be completely adjuſted and regulated in the Courſe of this Seſſion, yet I am perſuaded, that, by the Progreſs you have made, a ſolid Foundation is laid for ſecuring the moſt conſiderable and eſſential Benefits to this Nation.

"As no material Alteration has happened in the State of Foreign Affairs, ſince your firſt Meeting, I have nothing to communicate to you on that Subject. The fixed Objects of all my Meaſures are, to preſerve the Peace, and, at the ſame Time, to aſſert and maintain the Honour of my Crown, and the juſt Rights of my Subjects."

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

"I thank you for the neceſſary Supplies which you have ſo chearfully granted for the Public Service; and my particular Acknowledgments are due to you, for the Proviſion you have enabled me to make for the more honourable Support and Maintainance of my Family."

My Lords and Gentlemen,

"The great Attention which you have ſhewn to the particular Purpoſe for which I called you ſo early together, and the very wholeſome Laws paſſed for relieving my Subjects from the immediate Diſtreſs which the great Scarcity of Corn threatened to bring upon them, give me the moſt ſenſible Pleaſure. I rely upon you for the Exertion of your utmoſt Endeavours to convince my People, that no Care has been wanting to procure for them every Relief which has been poſſible; and, that their grateful Senſe of Proviſions, ſo wiſely made for their Happineſs, and laſting Proſperity, cannot be ſo fully expreſſed, as by a ſtrict Obſervance of that Order and Regularity, which are equally neceſſary to the Security of all good Government, as well as to their own real Welfare."

Then the Lord Chancellor, by his Majeſty's Command, prorogued this Parliament to Monday the 31ſt of Auguſt next.

Letters from Rome, dated June 10, after mentioning the Earthquake which happened there on the 4th, add, "The ſame Shock was felt at Spoletto, near 20 Leagues diſtant from this City, where it threw down ſeveral Houſes, and ſome Perſons were buried in the Ruins."

July 3. Yeſterday there was a very great Council at St. James's, to which, it is ſaid, no leſs than One Hundred and Six Members of the Privy Council were ſummoned to attend.

July 4. We are credibly informed, that Orders are given for proper Liſts to be made out, againſt next Seſſion of Parliament, of all the Papiſts, or thoſe that are reputed as ſuch in the reſpective Dioceſes throughout the Kingdom.

We hear the late Regulations in the Trade of the Iſle of Man, will benefit his Majeſty's Revenue little ſhort of 12,000 l. Sterling per Annum.

Advice is received that the Britannia Eaſt-Indiaman, Capt. Rous, from Bengal, with Lord Clive on board, was ſpoken with by the Lord Cambden, going into the Cape, the latter End of March laſt, on her Way to England.

July 5. The great Talk of a Change in the Miniſtry, will end, in the Opinion of many of our Politicians, in NOTHING, but TALK.

On the other Hand, it is too notorious to be contradicted, that there has been a violent Agitation among the Members of the Adminiſtration, within this Week paſt. Whatever latent Cauſe may have put them into ſuch a manifeſt troubled Motion, a few Days, we think, will determine, whether a TOTAL and LASTING CALM is to ſucceed or not.

July 7. It is now confidently ſaid, that his Grace the Duke of Richmond will be appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Saturday laſt, Two Companies of the Train of Artillery, lying at Woolwich, embarked on board the Tranſports for North-America, and will ſail the firſt fair Wind.

The Earl of Shelburne does not go to Ireland.

The Right Hon. Auguſtus Hervey, Secretary to his Brother, Lord Briſtol, has reſigned that Poſt.

Letters from Liſbon, of the 2d Ult. confirm the Account of the Inhabitants of Tercera having revolted againſt the new Governor; and add, that ſome Ships are equipping and arming, to take Troops on board, in order to quell the Inſurgents.

It has been thought, and ſtill is ſuppoſed by many, that a new Parliament will precede the next Seſſions; but, we hear the contrary is determined upon.

Yeſterday Morning, at a Quarter before Nine o'Clock, their Royal and Serene Highneſſes, the Prince and Princeſs of Brunſwick, ſet out in one of his Majeſty's Coaches for Dover, on their Return to Germany. The young Prince of Brunſwick ſet out ſome Time before them.

July 8. According to ſome Letters from Leghorn, the French General, Count de Marbeouf, had prevailed upon the General of the Corſicans to put a Stop to any farther Hoſtilities againſt the Genoeſe, until the Succeſs of a freſh Negotiation ſhould be experienced, at the Court of Verſailles, for effecting a Peace between theſe Iſlanders and the Republic.

The Genoeſe are in great Fear that Paoli will lay Siege to Bonifaccio, the only Place left them in the Iſland of Corſica.

By a Letter, dated the Firſt of December laſt, from a Gentleman who was on board the Falmouth Eaſt-Indiaman when ſhe was ſtruck with Lightning, we are informed, that they were afterwards wrecked in the Mouth of the Ganges; and of 360 Men, which they carried from England, there are only about 160 now alive at Calcutta, the reſt being either killed by the Lightning, burnt in the Ship, drowned, devoured by Tygers, when they got aſhore, or died of Fatigue.

It is ſaid that an Offer has been made to ſome of the Principals of the Oppoſition, to compoſe the new A———n, but that they would not accept but upon Terms that could not be complied with, which Terms are not yet certainly known; but it ſeems one of them is, that they inſiſt upon bringing in their Friends along with them.

Extract of a Letter from Italy, dated May 20.

"I forgot to mention to you, that the Pretender, a few Days before we left Rome, renounced his regal Pretenſions, and conſented to receive Company as a private Perſon, and had a numerous Converſatione for the firſt Time."

By a Gentleman just arrived from Scotland, we are informed, that at Edinburgh, and other Places, they are at present greatly agitated by the near Approach of the Determination of the Douglass great Cause, and Bets are near on an Equality; that several Short-hand Gentlemen are arrived from London, to take down the Debates, for which they are to be paid from 300 to 500 Guineas each Person; and that most of the Nobility and Persons of Distinction in that Kingdom, were come to Edinburgh, to be present at the Debates.

Sept. 7. Besides many Public and Private Bills, his Majesty gave the Royal Assent to the following, relative to America, &c. the 2d Day of July last.

An Act for granting certain Duties in the British Colonies and Plantations in America; for allowing a Drawback of the Duties of Customs upon the Exportation from this Kingdom of Coffee and Cocoa Nuts, of the Produce of the said Colonies or Plantations; for discontinuing the Drawbacks payable on China and Earthen-Ware exported to America; and for more effectually preventing the clandestine Running of Goods in the said Colonies and Plantations.

An Act for discontinuing the Duties of Logwood exported.

An Act for amending certain Laws, relating to the Revenue of the Post-Office; and for granting Rates of Postage, for the Conveyance of Letters and Packets between Great-Britain and the Isle of Man, and within that Island.

An Act for regulating the Proceedings of certain Public Companies and Corporations, carrying on Trade and Dealings with Joint Stocks, in respect to the declaring of Dividends; and for further regulating the Qualifications of Members, for voting in their respective General Courts.

An Act for regulating certain Proceedings of the General Courts of the United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the East-Indies.

An Act to enable his Majesty to put the Customs and other Duties in the British Dominions in America, and the Execution of the Laws relating to Trade there, under the Management of Commissioners, to be appointed for that Purpose, and to be resident in the said Dominions.

An Act to continue several Laws therein mentioned, relating to the clandestine Running of uncustomed Goods, and preventing Frauds relating to the Customs; to prevent the clandestine Running of Goods, and the Danger of Infection thereby; to the granting Liberty to carry Rice from His Majesty's Provinces of Carolina and Georgia, in America, directly to any Part of Europe, Southward of Cape-Finisterre, in Ships built and navigated according to Law; and to the prohibiting the Importation of Books re-printed abroad, and first composed, written, and printed, in Great-Britain.

An Act to prevent the Importation and wearing of French Lawns.

An Act for further continuing an Act of the last Session of Parliament, entitled, An Act to amend, and render more effectual, in his Majesty's Dominions in America, an Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, entitled, An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters.

ANNAPOLIS, SEPTEMBER 17.

SCHEME
OF THE
MARYLAND LIBERTY LOTTERY

THE Lower House of Assembly of Maryland having gratefully and unanimously testified, [illegible] Hundred and Thirty-nine, RESOLVED, That this Ship hath no Right to collect Twelve-pence per Hundred Tobacco exported.

A Constitutional Tax on the People to support an Appointment of the Lower House, has been often desired, frequently attempted, and as often refused by the Upper House.

The Lower House of Assembly resolved, That the Salaries of the Council his reasonable Reward, as well as every Expence necessarily attending the Execution of the Office of Government, ought to be defrayed out of the Revenue, Forfeitures, Amercements, and other Monies received by the Government for the Support thereof; and, "That the Appointment being directly opposite to the Opinion the Upper House had, on mature Consideration, formed upon the "Subject of the Clerk of the Council's Claim," which occasioned the Non-payment of the Public Debt for upwards of Ten Years: The Distress of Trade for Want of a Circulating Medium, and the extreme Necessity of Public Credit, compelled the Lower House to agree to an Appeal to his Majesty in Council, on the Subject Matter of Difference, without the Allotment of any Public Money for that Purpose, as the only Means to settle Disputes, restore Public Credit, and lay a sure Foundation for the future Ease and Good of the Province.

A Subscription therefore, by Resolve of the Lower House, has been Open'd, and Subscriptions are taken in by every Member, for maintaining an Agent, and supporting the Appeal on the Part of the People, as well as for the Redress of their other Grievances; and, by Resolve of the Lower House, as an additional Means of raising Money for the same Purposes, the following SCHEME of a LOTTERY, by which to raise One Thousand Pounds Common Money, is submitted to the Public.

2500 Blanks.

5000 { Tickets, at Thirty Shillings each, amount to } £.7500

From which deduct 1000 £.6500

Two and an Half per Cent to be deducted from the Prizes, to defray the Expences of the Lottery.

The Drawing to be in the Court-House at Annapolis, in the Presence of the Managers, and as many of the Adventurers as shall be pleased to attend.——From the best Estimate that can be found, there are about 800 of the said Tickets still for Sale; and as Gentlemen have not finished their Account of Tickets unsold, the Drawing is put off till the Monday after the Third Tuesday of October next, which is then certainly expected, even should there be some Tickets remaining to be taken on the Risk of the Lottery.——Those Gentlemen who have generously assisted in the Sale of Tickets, are requested to send an Account of the same against that Time; and the Managers are desired then to meet.

The Managers are, William Murdock, Esq; Thomas Sprigg, William Pace, John Weems, Thomas Gaither, South Rivers, Thomas Ringgold, B. T. B. Worthington, Henry Hall, John Hammond, Thomas Johnson, John Ridout, Annapolis, and Samuel Chase, or such of them as shall choose to act.

The said Managers to give Bond to the Hon. Speaker, and be upon Oath, for the faithful Discharge of their Trust.

A List of the Prizes to be Published in the Maryland GAZETTE, and the Prizes paid as soon as the Drawing is finished; and those not demanded in Six Months after the Drawing, to be deemed as generously given to the above Use.

The Scheme to be made publick in the Maryland, Virginia GAZETTES, and Pensylvania JOURNAL.

"LIFE without LIBERTY is worse than DEATH."

TICKETS may be had of any of the Managers, and most of the Members of the Lower House of Assembly.
